2019 Regional Arts Competition Jurors

Mary Reusch

Juror for Painting, Drawing, and Prints

Mary's art career began 40 years ago when she graduated from Grand Valley State University with a degree in commercial art. After working for various corporations and ad agencies, Mary returned to school at Aquinas College in 1996 to obtain a fine arts degree. In 1997 Mary was recommended for an internship at the Grand Rapids Art Museum, where she worked with the Curatorial Department. After graduating with her BFA, she was asked to join the group as the assistant registrar. For a few years, Mary worked at the art museum and painted in her studio. In 2001 she chose to work primarily as a studio artist, showing her work in various galleries in Grand Rapids, Ann Arbor, and Glen Arbor as well as South Bend, Indiana, and Chicago, Illinois. Mary has placed work in juried art competitions and participated in an artist-in-residency program.

In 2013 Mary returned to the Grand Rapids Art Museum, where she worked as the Interim Registrar for nearly a year and a half, interacting with the staff, and overseeing the collection, and gaining insight into the public art arena. Mary then continued to paint for exhibitions in the Grand Rapids area, as well as participate in ArtPrize. To expand her understanding and love of art, Mary has traveled to Paris, London, Amsterdam, Ghent, Bruges, Edinburgh, Dublin, Vienna, Reykjavik, Rio de Janeiro, Kyoto, and Seoul, visiting cultural centers and art museums. Mary's work is included in private and public collections, including Spectrum Health, Lacks Cancer Center, St. Joseph Mercy Care Center, Grand Valley State University, Kent County Public Art, Aquinas College, The Grand Rapids Art Museum, and Michigan State University's Public Art on Campus.

Throughout his career as a curator, Ron has organized numerous thematic and solo artist exhibitions. His recent exhibitions include Oswaldo Vigas: Transformations, which surveys the Venezuelan modernist's career with paintings and drawings that emphasize the transformative impulses that drove his creativity; Monir Farmanfarmaian: Mirror Variations comprises large-scale sculptural reliefs of cut mirror mosaic and reverse-glass painting that demonstrate the artist's interest in the serial progression of rectilinear forms, and Dylan Miner: Water is Sacred//Trees are Relatives. Forthcoming is a two-person exhibition pairing the work of Dawoud Bey and Carrie Mae Weems, which premieres at GRAM in 2021 and then travels to other select museums.

Randy Nyhof

Juror for Photography

I have been involved in photography for over 50 years. I am self-taught as regards to the mechanics of photography. The ascetic values I learned from my art experience and looking at what was considered good photography. My approach to fine art photography to a great extent has been influenced by my education in college, majoring in studio art. I have been influenced by many artists and photographers too numerous to mention. At first, I used 35mm & medium format film cameras, but now all my images are captured with various digital cameras. I owned and operated a photography business for over 40 years engaging in wedding photography, senior portraits, family portraits, underclass school day portraits, and commercial product photography. Lately, I have become more involved in producing photographic fine art images. In addition to participating in local art shows and competitions within the last 20 years, I have had images published in Popular Photography Magazine, Canada's PhotoLife Magazine, B&W Magazine, Focus Magazine, Austria's Trierenberg Super Circuit Publications, Photographer's Forum Best of Photography Annuals, Black River Calendar Publishing and local publications. I have also licensed a few photographs for several book covers and even a background screen for a British Rock Group. Recently I have licensed a number of my images to be sold on products at the Hobby Lobby Stores. Now in my retirement I keep busy with steady fine art photography online sales in several shop sites and am involved in local art & photography organizations, most notably with Grand Valley Artists.
