Celebration of the Arts

Forty-four years ago, Marion DeVinney and her husband, members of the First United Methodist Church in Grand Rapids, decided to start an art show as part of their Celebration of the Arts. This year, the church was fortunate enough to have Mrs. DeVinney as the juror for this wonderful annual art competition. In her Juror's Statement, Mrs. DeVinney said, "I again realized how rich Grand Rapids is in artistic talent." 230 entries were submitted and 131 were chosen to hang in the show. Thirty-three pieces chosen were from members of Grand Valley Artists. The following members of GVA were among the lucky artists to have pieces selected:

Laurene Alflen, Larry Blovits, Shirley Haan, Kathleen Kalinowski, Carol Lurn, Diann Lemmen, Jim Markle, Randall Nyhof, Bonnie Osborne, Janice Paulson, Stong Peng, Mary Reusch, Joanne Swann, Debby Walker, and Nancy Wanha each had one piece in the show. Randy Brewer, Nona Bushman, Evie Carrier, Marianna Heule, Douglas Klemm, Nancy MacLachlan, Kathy Mohl, Dennis O'Mara, and Gene Sampson each had two pieces chosen. Congratulations to Douglas Klemm, whose beautiful oil painting "Blueberries in Autumn" was awarded an Honorable Mention!

Gallery Uptown's Winter Festival

Larry Blovits, Gene Sampson, and Jan Paulson each had a painting accepted into Gallery Uptown's Winter Festival, held each year in the gallery on Washington Street in Grand Haven, Michigan. Congratulations!

Douglas Klemm's "Blueberries in Autumn" was awarded an Honorable Mention!

BIG NEWS!

We are very excited to share with you that we recently received a letter from the IRS stating: "We determined you're exempt from federal income tax. Donors can deduct contributions they make to you.....you are also qualified to receive tax deductible bequests, devises, transfers or gifts."

Thanks to the Board for making this happen! We hope members and non-members alike will choose to remember GVA when making their charitable donations now that those donations will mean a tax deduction!

Donations can be mailed to Grand Valley Artists, 1345 Monroe Ave. NW Suite 140, Grand Rapids, MI 49505.

Randy Nyhof

The Photo Group will meet on the first and third Tuesday of the month (March 7 and 21) at 7:30 p.m. Photographers are all welcome, regardless of experience or expertise. For additional information, you can always check our website. We try to keep the membership informed regarding the topics that will be discussed, etc., so you can know what to expect.

Please stop in for a great salad at Bliss & Vinegar, where you will see Jim Johnson's watercolors. If you want to show your work at B&V, make sure to load some images to our website, as that is where the owners go to find art they would like to display. Marty Klar coordinates this opportunity for us. Thanks, Marty!

Upcoming Programs at GVA

Submitted by Randy Nyhof

For the March Program our presenter is Bert Verbrugge. She has a degree in design from The University of Michigan and has taught adult students for probably 45 years. She has taught in facilitated classes at the Forest Hills Art Center and she teaches at the veterans home. She is an excellent presenter, and has foundational knowledge for both realistic and abstract painters.

In April I have scheduled Pamela DeTuncq, an artist from Sun Valley, Idaho. Pamela is a conceptual artist who addresses some of the more compelling zeitgeists of contemporary American culture. After years in the design industry, she now applies her skills to multi-layered sculptural installations addressing such disparate themes as teen alienation, gender stereotypes, and the vicissitudes of faith. Her most recent work addresses the subject of aging, and the ephemeral nature of existence. She earned her MFA in Visual Arts from the Art Institute of Boston and BA in Graphic Design from the University of Maryland. Her work has been shown nationally, with the Denno's Museum adding one of her fiber installations to their permanent collection this year. Pamela DeTuncq lives and works in Hailey, Idaho.

For May I have scheduled fellow GVA member Jim Connelly. His program, "My Adventures as an Artist," covers Jim's entire career from custom painting vans to fine art painting and illustrating book covers.

Show runs March 2nd through March 5th at the ArtPrize Hub at 41 Sheldon Blvd SE in Grand Rapids. The opening reception will be held Friday, March 3rd from 6 to 10 p.m.

Cascade Library

Be sure to check out the works of Randy Nyhof, Todd Darling and Ron Shamery, now on display at the Cascade Library. Also, as many know, Larry Goff is dealing with health issues. At this time he is unable to continue his volunteer work in providing GVA artwork to display at the Kent District Cascade Branch Library. The Library is a beautiful venue that provides a great deal of exposure to GVA artists. In addition, library personnel are promoting GVA on their Facebook page.

This volunteer work involves hanging artwork every 3 months. Recruitment of three to four artists to include no more than 17 works in total is suggested. Marty Klar graciously volunteered to recruit artists for February thru April. However, we will need someone to take over for May. We don't want to lose this opportunity to get our GVA artwork into the community. Please contact Marty at 616-813-7921 if you want to show your work in May, and contact Carol Lurn at 616-437-9365 if you want to volunteer.

We want to thank Larry for undertaking this responsibility for the benefit of our members and his years of service for GVA. Our thoughts are with you Larry...you're the BEST.

Frauenthal Center

The Reception Gallery at Frauenthal Center hosts the beautiful pastels of Jim Markle. The title of the show is "Landscape Memories." Here is Jim's description of the show: "Why do I love painting landscapes. I think it's mostly the multitude of images that nature creates through a combination of light striking objects and the wonderful images that can result to experience and paint. That combination can change an image so fast that sometimes the image is just a fleeting memory." This show runs through the month of March. Don't miss this opportunity to view Jim's beautiful artworks.

Franciscan Life Process Center

The Lowell Campus of the Franciscan Life Process Center is hosting the beautifully commissioned artworks of the Prodigal's Son by Larry and Mary Gerbens. Larry was so very moved by the Biblical story of forgiveness that he commissioned artists from different backgrounds and experience to do their interpretation of this story. Don't miss this show of beautifully designed artworks. The Franciscan Life Process Center is open during regular business hours. This show runs through the end of April.

Terryberry Gallery at St. Cecilia's

The month of March hosts William Alexander and Richard Schaff. They have two completely different styles of painting. William paints in a contemporary style and Richard paints in a realistic, often conceptual style. Come and see these two artists' beautiful artworks at Terryberry Gallery at St. Cecilia. The reception for this show will be Friday, March 3, from 5:30 - 7:30 p.m. You won't want to miss this wonderful show.

Guardian Gallery at St. Adalbert's

The featured artist in February is our own David Thinger. Come and see a beautiful collection of David's multi-media pieces. Guardian Gallery is at 671 Davis Avenue NW, Grand Rapids. It's the second brick building from the basilica. Go to the doorway with the arched covering over the top and you will find a box with three buttons on it. Push the button that has on it "Franciscan Life Process Center." Push it and you will be buzzed in. This show will be up the months of February, March, April and May. The Guardian Gallery is open Tuesday-Friday, noon to 7:30 p.m.

Recycle!

Notice to all GVA members: I'm not a BIG recycler, but I do think we should be doing our part. So, I've placed a bin in the kitchen area for: PAPER, CARDBOARD, CLEAN PLASTIC CONTAINERS & PLASTIC CUPS (NO PLASTIC BAGS). This is also to be used for studio and office recycling. I will be responsible for taking the recycling home as the bin fills. If you have any questions, please contact me at 616-656-9210 or mcperfitt@me.com. Thank you for doing your part!
